Brookgreen Gardens Receives Bridge Grant from SC Humanities

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT
FOR THE HUMANITIES

Murrells Inlet, S.C., July 22, 2020 – Brookgreen Gardens received a Bridge Grant from South Carolina Humanities, www.schumanities.org. Funding for the Bridge Grants has been provided by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act economic stabilization plan.

“This grant will be used to assist us to continue the missions of Brookgreen through the current economic crisis due to the pandemic,” said Page Kiniry, President and CEO of Brookgreen Gardens. “We are so thankful for this and for all of our Congressional representatives that supported the CARES Act.”

About Brookgreen Gardens

Brookgreen Gardens, a National Historic Landmark and 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, is located on U.S. 17 between Murrells Inlet and Pawleys Island, South Carolina, and is open to the public daily. Founded in 1931 by Anna Hyatt Huntington and Archer Huntington, Brookgreen is home to the largest and most significant collection of American Figurative Sculpture in the county, and continues as a leader in sculpture conservation, environmental conservation, and protection of the plants, animals and history of the South Carolina Lowcountry.
